

The recommendation was sent to us from Germany.

Hello Margaret, Hello Roy,

Now we are back in Germany for ten days. The last day in Scotland, Monday, 16th, we drove to Loch Lomond.

The B+B we found was absolutely not to compare with the Old Manor. We came from heaven to a desert. But it was for one night only, just for sleeping.

Looking back to our first Scotland experience, it was a great time. Especially your warm hospitality and our comfortable stay in Old Manor were outstanding! Many, many thanks again to you both. We will not forget this time and hope, to find an open door, when we will come again to Scotland in your region.

Warmest regards from Essen in Germany

Yours

George and Anette.
